Ayatollah Khamenei: U.S. Hostility Has Increased IRGC’s Dignity

President Putin: Iran’s Missile, Nuclear Programs Separate Matters

Iran Lose to Japan 3-1 at FIVB World Cup

‘Int’l Apathy to Palestinian Sufferings Encourages Zionist Aggression’

Turkey Expands Syria Incursion as Civilians Flee

Official Details New Gas Field Discovery

TEHRAN (Dispatches) – Iran has discovered a new natural gas field with a 19-trillion-cubic-foot reserve in the southern province of Fars, the Ministry of Petroleum’s website reported on Sunday.

“The new natural gas field is in the southern part of Fars province with 19 trillion cubic feet in place,” Shana quoted Rostam Dehzangi, deputy director of the National Iranian Offshore Oil Company (NIIOC), as saying. Iran’s natural gas reserves is the world’s second largest.

IMRAN KHA NN: The Prime Minister of Pakistan, Imran Khan, said on Sunday a proper end to the ongoing war waged by Saudi Arabia and its allies on Yemen is necessary to “positive” effects on the region.

“The Islamic Republic of Iran has for a long time presented a four-point plan to end the war in Yemen,” Ayatollah Khamenei said in a meeting with the visiting Pakistani Prime Minister Imran Khan.

“The end of this war in the proper way can have positive effects on the region,” the leader said.

The leader also lauded Pakistan’s concern about the establishment of peace and security in the region, noting that West Asia is a “very sensitive and critical” region.

Ayatollah Khamenei expressed regret about the destructive role played by “some regional countries” through their support for terrorist groups in Iraq and Syria and causing war and bloodshed in the region.

“We have no motivation for being hostile toward these neighboring and friendly countries, but they are under the influence of America and act against the Islamic Republic of Iran in line with what America desires.”

The leader emphasized that the Islamic Republic has never initiated any war, saying, “If someone starts a war against our country, we will undoubtedly re-

[Continued on Page 7]

President Putin: Iran’s Missile, Nuclear Programs Separate Matters

MOSCOW (Dispatches) – Russian President Vladimir Putin said Iran’s missile program should be dealt with as a separate matter to its nuclear program.

Putin was speaking in an inteview with Arab broadcasters, including Saudi-owned Al Arabiya TV, ahead of his first visit to Saudi Arabia in over a decade.

“Russia must be a responsible and friendly country with deep strategic relations, and both sides insist that these strategic relations should continue strongly,” the president said.

[Continued on Page 7]